

The Future of SaaS Management, Co-Built by You

No buzzwords here. Torii is the only SMP that offers the capabilities of a true platform:

- Build atop of Torii's API
- Seamlessly connect external systems
- Collaborate with other developers
- Share new innovations

The SaaS Management Platform for Builders

The only open SaaS management platform that's actually a platform

Innovate With Torii's Developer Community

Never be limited by your SMP's features again. Augment Torii to address any SaaS challenge you can imagine

- Build new functionalities
- Gain access to guides, code samples, documentation, & Torii's API explorer
- Share new innovations
- Collaborate with other developers

Explore Torii's Plugin Marketplace

Integrate key data from core systems for better visibility into security, finance, and more. Get real-time insights from external systems thanks to embedded widgets and build nuanced workflows based on that data. Extensibility, unleashed.

"The Torii Developer Community is a huge asset for Torii customers, and you don't actually have to be a developer to take advantage of it. For smaller IT Teams in particular, the Developer Community is incredibly beneficial in reducing common pain points by providing documentation, resources, and support to help you through the development process. Basically, you don't have to go it alone."
